The four of them have been charged with selling drugs and for attempting to murder a policeman.

The four appeared for the first time before the Tallinn City Court at the end of January. The court ruled that Tivst and Shepelev should remain in prison for now and the case against Swastyrov and Gasparyan will be continued.

Q: Help identifying a lens I'm trying to identify a lens, but I can't. I found it in an old camera, but I can't identify the make or model. A: No idea what it is from but it is probably a cheap plastic lens. Some suggestions It might be a "garmin" or "garmin north pole" lens, this lens has a built in compass which is unreliable and can be offset on every lens, if it is made in the early '90's - the beginning of digital that were called "digitally enhanced". Or it could be a Polaroid - they made a lot of lenses too. Local school responsible for players' showings, not athletes' THE Big Gay Footy Open is about men who want to play footy. That's its official line. If it was about lesbians who wanted to play footy, that would be okay. If it was about wheelchair-bound people who wanted to play footy, that would be okay, too. The BGF is about men who want to play footy. But now they've opened the festival to women - which is fine - but there's a catch. It's a man's world here. And if it wasn't for men, why are the players at the recent BGF events getting their names in the paper for flopping? One of the men who dropped to his knees when tackled by a female opponent during the first round of the BGF, an incident reported all around the country, was a RICHWOOD player. Fellow RICHWOOD player Mandy Woods says the men who drop to their knees, even when they are most vulnerable, are conditioned to obey rules made for men. "I don't think men are conditioned to obey rules set for them," she says. "If something is inappropriate for women, it's inappropriate for men, too." WOM 648931e174
